

Position Available

Burritt on the Mountain is seeking a museum educator. Burritt offers a unique and exciting environment to work with enthusiastic learners, educators, and museum professionals in a scenic and inspiring location.

Position Summary

A Museum Educator works with other education team members to develop and present educational programming including, but not limited to, field trips, day camps, home school enrichment classes, outreach programs, festivals and special programming for children and families. This position requires a great deal of collaboration with other members of the staff, volunteers and community members. This position requires a background check.

Education and Experience Requirements

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university (or be currently enrolled as a Junior or Senior studying a related field)
- Experience working with children
- Proficient in Microsoft Office applications such as Word and Excel.

Desired Personal Characteristics

- Able to work with the public, particularly children. Must have good classroom management skills.
- Excellent verbal communication and written communication skills. Experience with public speaking desired. Must speak English fluently.
- Able to be a team player.

Physical Demands

The position requires that the employee be able to walk unaided up and down hills and over uneven terrain, bend, climb stairs and ladders, lift objects, hike nature trails, and participate in active games with children.

Hours and Compensation

This position requires an average of 27 hours per week. Compensation is $11.00 per hour.

This position qualifies the worker to participate in the Retirement System of Alabama (RSA). Employees also receive free museum membership and employee discounts.

Burritt on the Mountain is committed to providing equal employment opportunities to all applicants of employment. Accordingly all terms and conditions of employment will be carried out without regard to race, color, religion or creed, national origin or ancestry, sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation or gender identity), age (40 or older), status as an individual with a physical or mental disability, veteran status, genetic information, and citizenship, or any other factor protected by federal, state, or local law.

Throughout the COVID pandemic, Burritt has been following CDC guidelines. Currently, guests, students and staff are required to wear masks inside buildings. We also encourage social distancing.