

UNCORKED AT BURRITT

A Champagne Brunch & Journey into Decorative Arts

Thrifting and antiques have captured the imagination of a new generation, but how do you know what you are really looking at?

Join us for Uncorked, a champagne brunch at Burritt on the Mountain featuring a guided introduction to the world of antiques. Guests will enjoy bubbly, brunch, and an engaging talk on how to identify and understand antiques, followed by curated showcase stations led by local antique dealers. Learn the difference between bone china and ironstone, spot signs of age and craftsmanship, and discover why some old things are worth keeping. Proceeds from Uncorked support Burritt's ongoing preservation efforts.
